For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way

TAYLOR & TAYLOR,

Friday, May 24, 1907. OFFICE OF PUBLICATION—Cornustin and Vale Ste, Jefferson, Tex

Entered at the Post-Office at Jefferson, Texas a second-class mail matter. Copies of the JEFFERSON JIMPLECUTE, in wist pers ready for mailing, can always be had at the office by single copies or the dozen.

This paper is mailed regularly to its abscribers until a definite order to iscontinue is received and all arrears re paid in full.

If State Paess will come over this way, he will find the iron in terest on the move-no booming. In a short while something of interest will be heard.

More visitors are pricing proper ty here than any time in years past. Especially is the inquiry for business property on the increase. The water and iron is doing this. In a year or so changes will be greater than any one ever dreamed

In place of automobiles the capitalists of Jefferson are investing in gasoline propellers. They are having the finest time imaginable. When they are all going, one not knowing what the reports are, would think another battle of the Sea of Japan was going on, using only the rapid firing guns.

Such carelessness is unpardonable. To whom would the bonds belong?"

If the politicians could only learn to study the questions which would build up the country instead styles in men's, young men's and of playing to the gallerys the counboys' and children's Clothing. The try would be more benefited. The opening of spring finds our big de-worst possible blow which can be partment store ready with the given Texas now is any law which tive array of clothing for men, will cause capital to hesitate on young men and boys and children coming to the State, or make that ever shown in Jefferson at any which is here uneasy. Texas needs time. In no other Jefferson store at least 500 cotton mills, furniture could you possibly find such an factories, boiler and machine shops, concrete works, canning factories. which this store has created for its cotton tie and rolling mills, pipe foundries. In fact a factory for proof of its greater quality and everything she has in the raw state value giving. Call and see us. everything she has in the raw state to supply the home demand. Just how any one can stand before a people so much in the need of capital as Texas is and do anything which will in the least frighten it away, is indeed strange. The raw material of the State stands in the need of millions of dollars to man ufacture it.
